

DIGNITY AT WORK

ANTI-BULLYING & HARASSMENT POLICY

Note: This policy should be used in conjunction with the Council's Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

- 1.1 Statement: In support of its value to respect others Cleobury Mortimer Town Council will not tolerate bullying or harassment by, or of, any of its employees, officials, members, contractors, visitors to the Council or members of the public. The Council is committed to the elimination of any form of intimidation in the workplace and that all employees are entitled to a working environment which respects their dignity at work.

This policy reflects the spirit in which the Council intends to undertake all of its business and outlines the specific procedures available to all employees in order to protect them from bullying, harassment and unacceptable behaviour. It should be read in conjunction with the Council's policy on Grievance handling. The Council will issue this policy to all employees as part of its induction and to all members as part of their Welcome Pack. The Council may also wish to share this policy with contractors, visitors and members of the public.

Bullying and harassment may occur face-to-face, in meetings, through written communication, including e-mail, by telephone or through automatic supervision methods. It may occur on or off work premises, during work hours or non-work time.

1.2 Definitions

Bullying and Unacceptable Behaviour includes a pattern of offensive behaviour, intimidating, ridiculing, humiliating or demeaning someone; being abusive, malicious or insulting; unfair treatment such as exclusion, discrimination or victimisation; overbearing supervision, making threats about job security, deliberately undermining a competent worker by overloading work, preventing an individual's promotion or training opportunities, imposing a punishment or changing an employee's duties or responsibilities to his/her detriment without reasonable justification or other misuse of position or power; physical and non-verbal conduct ie compromising personal space or unwelcome sexual advances, displaying suggestive or offensive pictures, objects or written materials, making suggestive or offensive gestures and inappropriate use of emails; verbal conduct ie unwelcome, offensive and suggestive remarks, threats, intimate questions, innuendoes, lewd comments, obscene jokes or foul language or inciting of racial or sexual abuse, derogatory language and inappropriate comments about dress, appearance or physique.

Harassment is unwanted conduct that violates a person's dignity or creates an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. This policy covers, but is not limited to, harassment on the grounds of sex, marital status, sexual orientation, race, colour, nationality, ethnic origin, religion, belief, disability or age.

Unacceptable behaviour, bullying and harassment are unwanted by the recipient and can lead to poor morale, low productivity and poor performance, sickness absence, mental health issues, lack of respect for others, turnover, damage to the council's reputation and ultimately, legal proceedings against the Council incurring legal fees and compensation.

- 1.3 Penalties: Bullying and harassment by employees are considered examples of serious misconduct which will be dealt with through Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures at Gross Misconduct level and may result in summary dismissal from the Council. Bullying and Harassment by councillors will be dealt through referral to the Monitoring Officer at Shropshire Council, as a contravention of the Members' Code of Conduct which may result in penalties against the Member concerned. In extreme cases harassment can constitute a criminal offence and the Council should take appropriate legal advice, sometimes available from the Council's insurer, if such a matter arises. Where harassment arises from people not directly employed by the Town Council ie customers, contractors, residents, such complaints will be taken seriously and pursued with the third party concerned, exercising whatever sanctions are available and consider our 'Unacceptable Behaviour Policy' and 'Complaints Policy'.
- 1.4 The Legal position: Councils have a duty of care towards all their workers and liability under common law arising out of the Employment Rights Act 1996 and the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974. Under the following laws bullying or harassment may be considered unlawful discrimination; Sex Discrimination Act 1975, Race Relations Act 1976, Disability Discrimination Act 1995, Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003, Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003, Employment Equality (Sex Discrimination) 2005, Employment Equality (Age) Regulations 2006.

In addition, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 and Protection from Harassment Act 1997 created a criminal offence of harassment with a fine and/or prison sentence as a penalty and a right to damages for the victim.

In addition, a harasser may be personally liable to pay damages if a victim complains to an Employment Tribunal for sexual, racial, disability or age discrimination.

2. PROCESS FOR DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS OF BULLYING AND HARASSMENT

- 2.1 Informal approach – Anyone; employee, contractor, member or visitor, who feels he or she is being bullied or harassed should try to resolve the problem informally, in the first instance. It may be sufficient to explain to the person(s) involved in the unwanted behaviour that their conduct is unacceptable, offensive or causing discomfort.

2.2 Formal approach

- 2.2.1 Employees: Where the harassment continues or the employee feels unable to resolve the matter informally any complaint about harassment or bullying can be raised confidentially and informally, initially with your Line Manager or if the complaint is about your Line Manager, the matter should be referred to the Chair of the Council or another councillor. It may be appropriate for the complaint to be put in writing after the initial discussion with your Line Manager, Chair or councillor, as this will enable the Council's formal Grievance Procedure to be invoked. If you do not wish to make a formal written complaint then the person dealing with the issue may deal with the matter on an informal and confidential basis by speaking to the alleged perpetrator on your behalf. A mediation meeting between you and the alleged perpetrator facilitated by a neutral mediator might be an option at this or a later stage. During any investigation the Council may suspend the alleged perpetrator on full pay and benefits or temporarily re-deploy them. Suspension or temporary redeployment during investigation is a precautionary measure only and is not considered disciplinary action.

Following completion of the investigation, if the complaint is substantiated, disciplinary action may be taken against the perpetrator. You will be notified of the outcome of the investigation. Serious incidents (even of a one-off nature) can constitute gross misconduct for which the perpetrator may be dismissed without notice.

2.2.2 Others - Any other party to the Council, other than an employee who feels he or she is being bullied or harassed should raise their complaint with the Clerk, where possible, or the Monitoring Officer if an informal notification to a member has been unsuccessful at eliminating the problem or where a member is directly involved in the bullying or harassment. The complaint should then be investigated and a hearing held to discuss the facts and recommend the way forward.

A member of the public who feels he/she has been bullied or harassed by any Member or officer(s) of the Council should use the Council's official Complaints Procedure.

2.3 Grievance – Employees only - A meeting to discuss the complaint with the complainant will normally be arranged within five working days of a written complaint being received and will be held under the provisions of the Council's Grievance Procedure. This meeting will be to discuss the issues raised and a way forward for the member(s) of staff involved. Employees have a right to be accompanied by a work colleague or a trade union representative at this meeting. A full investigation of the complaint will be held by an officer as appointed by the Chairman/councillor who is handling the process. It may be appropriate for an external investigator to be involved in order to maintain objectivity and impartiality. The Hearing Panel will publish its recommendations following deliberation of the facts. An action plan should be made available to the complainant to demonstrate how the problem is to be resolved. It may be decided that mediation is required and the council should contact NALC, an employer's body or ACAS to this effect or the council may offer counselling. The employee will have a right of appeal as established by the Employment Act 2002. At all times the confidentiality of the grievance will be of paramount importance in order to maintain trust in the process hence details of the full grievance will not be shared with the full council without prior approval by the complainant. The Council will commit not to victimize the complainant for raising the complaint once the appropriate grievance/disciplinary process has been concluded.

2.4 Disciplinary Action - Following a Grievance Hearing or investigation into allegations of bullying or harassment a full report will be made to all parties and this may result in disciplinary action being taken against the perpetrator of the alleged action/behaviour.

For an Employee found to have been bullying/harassing others the council's Disciplinary procedure will be followed, under the Employment Act 2002 provisions and will normally be treated as Gross Misconduct.

For Members who the Council reasonably believe have been bullying or harassing another person(s) whilst undertaking Council activities the action taken must be reasonable and in some cases counselling or training in appropriate skill areas e.g. interpersonal communication, assertiveness, chairmanship etc., may be more appropriate than a penalty.

The range of disciplinary sanctions available to the Council, where a member has been involved in bullying/harassment include; admonishment and an undertaking not to repeat the process, removal of opportunities to further harass/bully, banning from committees of the council and representation on any outside bodies, a referral to the Monitoring Officer at Shropshire Council (or equivalent) by the Council and/or the aggrieved victim. There may also be a referral to the Police under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, in the most extreme cases. This list is not exhaustive.

- 2.5 False or malicious allegations of harassment or bullying which damage the reputation of a fellow employee/member will not be tolerated and will be dealt with as serious misconduct under the Disciplinary Procedure and/or a referral to the Monitoring Officer at Shropshire Council.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

All parties to the Council have a responsibility to ensure that their conduct towards others does not harass or bully or in any way demean the dignity of others. If unacceptable behaviour is observed then each individual can challenge the perpetrator and ask them to stop.

The Council undertakes to share its policy with all members and workers and request that each party signs to demonstrate acceptance of its terms. All new members and employees will be provided with a copy of this policy.

The Council will undertake to ensure that its Members and workers are trained in the processes required by this policy as deemed appropriate.
